

Additional resources for “Blog Your Family Stories the Easy Way”

1. Places you can go to see examples of family history blogs:
 - a. Cyndi’s list <https://www.cyndislist.com/blogs/>
 - b. Geneabloggers Tribe <http://geneabloggertribe.com/members/>
2. Help for setting up a blog in Google Blogger
 - a. “How to Set Up a Google Blog,” WikiHow
<https://www.wikihow.com/Set-Up-a-Google-Blog>
 - b. “Create a Blog,” Blogger Help
<https://support.google.com/blogger/answer/1623800?hl=en>
 - c. “What is Blogger? A getting-started guide for new bloggers,” Lifewire
<https://www.lifewire.com/what-is-google-blogger-1616420>
3. Help for getting ideas on what to write about
 - a. Birth, marriage, and death anniversaries
 - b. Other kinds of anniversaries and holidays
 - c. Changing seasons
 - d. Current events
 - e. Current research
 - f. Objects with family significance
 - g. Photos
 - h. Blogging prompts
4. Copyright-free (public domain) photos
 - a. Pixabay <https://pixabay.com/>
 - b. Library of Congress <http://www.loc.gov/pictures/>
 - c. National Archives
<https://www.archives.gov/research/alic/reference/photography>
 - d. Libraries, museums, historical societies
 - e. Google search for topic, images, and “public domain”